Meeting Minuets:

The meeting was called to order at 6:05 PM. Along with the regular membership we have one new member, Drue Hoglano, and three visitors, Bill Tabala, Dave Nelson and Ted Pelfrey.

Jon discussed his plans for the club for this year. Among other items he discussed, was that several members have suggested that we have a shop day once per month where members would meet to teach other members the fine points of woodturning. Les agreed to allow us the use of his shop and it was decided that the 4th Saturday of each month will be a shop day. The first shop day will be on February 27th. No times have been set.

From memory, the mentors I have are Jon Reiver, John Lucas, Jim Bentley and John Orban.

Jon also gave us an update on his talks with Richard Raffan concerning a day of demonstration at our club in May, 2010. Costs should be in the neighborhood of $1200 to $1500. A motion was made by Jim Bentley and seconded by Gil Buffkin that we retain Richard for the demonstration and that club member will pay $30 each to attend and non-club members will pay $40. Further discussion decided that the demonstration will be held at Les Black's shop and, because of available space, attendance will be limited to 50. Signup for the demonstration will be at the February meeting and payment must be received by the March meeting. Motion passed.

Rod discussed the money received from the sale of Christmas ornaments this year and the club voted to donate the money to Hospice and Avalon.

Everett Elkins agreed to meet with Rod and complete the annual audit in order to close the 2009 books.

Meeting Adjourned

Several of our members (Jon Reiver, Gil Buffkin, Les Black, Rod Smith, Bob Cummins, Jake Neidling, John Lucas, Richard Cale) were in attendance at the TAW Symposium in Nashville this past weekend. The demonstrators were Frank Penta, Trent Bosch, Tania Radda and Mark St.Leger. Great show - learned a lot.

Monthly Demo:

This month's demo was given by Kimberly Winkle, who discussed and demonstrated the art of Milk Painting and design on wood.

Kimberly Winkle has been teaching at TTU since 2003 and is currently a visiting professor of Art. Winkle teaches Art Foundation courses and Art Appreciation and has previously taught in the Wood department at the Appalachian Center for Craft.

Kimberly is a native of Oklahoma where she received her Bachelor of Fine Art from the University of Oklahoma in ceramics. She subsequently moved to San Diego, CA where she attended San Diego State University and received her Master of Fine Art in Furniture Design. After completing her graduate studies, she moved to Smithville, TN where she was an Artist in Residence, in the wood department, at the Appalachian Center for Craft.

Alongside teaching, Kimberly Winkle, is a very active artist and exhibits her work extensively. She combines furniture and sculptural elements to create one of a kind art objects in her studio in Smithville, TN. Her work has been shown both nationally and internationally, is a number of public and private collections, has been published in a variety of national publications and has won a number of awards for her artwork.

Cumberland Woodturner's Gallery Show

Plan to attend the Cumberland woodturner's gallery show at the Cumberland Plateau Creative Art Center, Fairfield Glade, TN during the month of February. Special showing for members is Saturday, February 6th. Contact Jim Bentley, Bill Westerbeck or Phil Powell for more information.

Safety Tip Of The Month:

Whenever working in the wood shop, remember to avoid loose-fitting clothing, as you wouldn't want any of your attire to become entangled in a saw blade or cutting head. Wear clothes that are comfortable for the environment in which you're working, but also will protect your body from any wayward wood chips that might result from cutting. Before beginning, remember to remove any dangling jewelry such as neck chains or bracelets.
