The Challenge of the Month was turning Christmas Ornament. We had six outstanding entries which demonstrated the great talent in our club. The challenge was judged by Les Black and won by Jake Neidling. Good Job!

We had no visitors .

Wood of the Month

Ken Warrick turned a platter. Jake Neidling won the wood of the month for May.

Club challenge: Wig Stand Meeting Minutes

- Ohio Valley Woodturning Guild is offering a gift certificate to their symposium in October 2019 with a value of $210.00 for symposium registration only, doesn't include lodging or meals. If you are interested please sign up and drawing will be held at May 29, 2019 meeting.
- Dalton Area Woodturners Guild (DAWG) wants to partner with area clubs to set up a star demonstrator sharing arrangement. They have members that would host participating partners if desired. If you are interested in participating in this contact Rick Urban at rickurbanwoodturner@gmail.com , 706-537-1636 or Jared Bruckner at Bruckner@southern.edu, 423-400-3062.
- Rod Smith presented a brief description of the Wig Stand challenge that the club would be participating in support of the Breast Cancer Center at Cumberland Hospital. Our club will be the fourth club in the nation to participate in this effort.
- Art Circle Library greatly appreciated our club showing their turnings and said that it had created other organizations who now want to participate in doing the same.
- This year's club picnic will be held Saturday, June 15, 2019 at Shelter House No. 2, Cumberland State Park, Crossville, TN. A sign up list was passed for those planning on attending, with the final sign up at the May 2019 meeting. The cost of the shelter house rental was donated by a member of the club.
- Gun & Knife Show this year will be August 3&4, 2019. Volunteer turners are being requested for this event. Sign- up sheet was made available for those wishing to volunteer at the meeting or by contacting Gail Hagenbach at ghagenbach2@gmail.com.
- The AAW is also offering a $50.00 discount per person for groups of ten (10) or more club members for the International Symposium in Raleigh, NC next July 2019. Let's try to put a group together to attend.
- The club received 25% of the proceeds from the sale of Phil Powell tools sold at the sale last weekend.
- A thank you card from Peggy Schmid was read thanking the club for the opportunity to perform the demo last Saturday. The box that was done in the demo was auctioned off at the meeting.
- An updated membership roster has been sent to Hartville Tools. If you order from them mention that you are a member of the Cumberland Woodturners and you will get a 15% discount
- We encourage people to keep turning Beads of Courage boxes as the need never ends.
- We encourage all members to visit the website: www.cumberlandwoodturners.com.
- Bill Atchison reported a balance of $2951.40.

Safety: Around the lathe basics and check out AAW Safety Guide available on their website.

Drue Hogland Wig Stand Demo

By Drue Hogland

Drue Hogland presented a demo on the turning of a Wig Stand that the club has accepted as project that will be donated to the Breast Cancer Center at the Cumberland Medical Center. He explained the steps that it takes to complete this easy project and told the club that the instructions for the Wig Stand are located in the "Tips" section of our website. (www.cumberlandwoodturners.com) All Wig Stands presented at the next meeting are to be donated to the Breast Cancer Center, at Cumberland Medical Center. This will be an ongoing project for the club.
